

University of St. Francis & Performance Learning Systems are proud to offer multiple graduate level programming options for teachers across the country!

Did you know?

- You can now combine PLS and USF coursework to fulfill requirements of a Teaching and Learning Master's Degree:

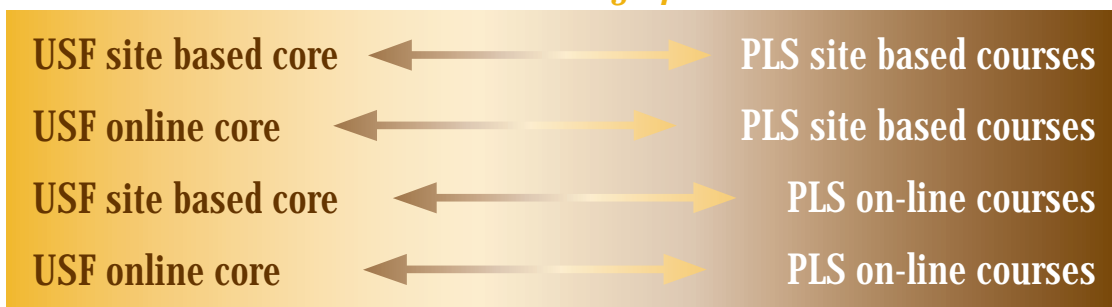

36 hour Teaching and Learning Degree

6 hours of transfer credit available

- Many delivery options are now available! Teachers can apply to the USF Master's Degree Program before or after taking any number of PLS courses:

Course Blending Options

Multiple combinations are available to meet individual needs

- Course work can be completed in as little as 18 months.
- There are no GRE or summer residency requirements for the USF master's program.
- Candidates are provided personalized attention through the master's program while working with an Academic Advisor and Program Coordinator.
- By selecting this Teaching and Learning Degree option, the cost of tuition is significantly reduced because of the partnership between USF and PLS.
- Financial aid is available for 18 credit hours of USF core courses once a participant is accepted and enrolled in the master's degree program.
- Instructors of the PLS and USF courses are highly qualified and considered experts in the field.
- The University of St. Francis is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE).

